

Valeriu BINIG

Strategy Principal, PPC Group

Valeriu is a Strategy Principal with the PPC Group. His professional experience in the energy sector covers some 39 years. He has been power plant operation engineer, designer, researcher, lecturer, top executive and administrator of national utility companies, European Commission Task Manager, Big5/Big 4 Manager, Director and Partner, investment officer, provider of Corporate Finance and Investment Banking services, Management Consultant. Former member of the Board of Administration of RENEL/CONEL, former Chairman of the Board of Administration of Electrica and Termoelectrica. Former Chairman of the Board of Administration of the Romanian Energy Efficiency Fund. Has managed major consultancy/assistance projects for processes of privatization and attraction of private capital in the Romanian power sector: lignite and hard coal fired energy complexes, power distribution companies, gas distributors and transmission operator, nuclear power plant, pumped storage hydropower plant, etc. Has advised in major transactions with renewable energy projects. Has led the assistance to the Romanian Ministry of Energy for quantitative modelling in view of elaborating the National Energy Strategy. Has been for 5 years Director for Regulatory and Antitrust Affairs of ENEL Romania, later PPC Romania Group. Member of committees, working groups and expert groups at the level of Eurelectric and EU DSO Entity. Chair and co-chair of the Amcham Romania Energy Committee since 2012. Chairman of the Advisory Board of Energy Policy Group. Holds a PhD in Reliability of Energy Systems.