

Dan-Virgil Pascu

Vice-President of the Competition Council

PhD in Legal Studies (2007), title obtained at the Faculty of Law of the University of Tübingen/Germany. He graduated the Faculty of Legal and Administrative Sciences ‘Simion Bărnuțiu’ of the ‘Lucian Blaga’ University of Sibiu, in 1998.

Lawyer with extensive professional experience in legal advice, especially in the field of competition law and waste management as well as other areas of law associated with business law (civil law, labour law, contravention law, etc.).

He was involved in the process of drafting the legal initiatives providing for the horizontal cooperation systems between competitors on the waste management market, being involved in public or individual consultations during the drafting/amendment of the legal acts (Chamber of Deputies, Ministry of Environment, Competition Council).

He has been the Vice-president of the Competition Council since July 2021.